

GLOBAL NEUROPSYCHIATRY GROUP (GNG)

MONTHLY ACADEMIC MEETING

Thursday, 30 July 2026

11:30 am – 1:30 pm UK Time | 8:30 pm – 10:30 pm AEST

Please check and verify your local time zone.

SESSION CHAIR

Coming Soon

Session Chair coming soon

FEATURED SPEAKER

Dr. Rowena Mobbs

Neurologist
Mater Hospital
SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA

Topic:

Bedside to bench: clinical learnings in probable CTE

Dr Rowena Mobbs is a cognitive neurologist and Director of Harbour Neurology in North Sydney, Visiting Medical Officer at Mater Hospital Sydney. She is recognised as one of Australia's leading experts in concussion, dementia and CTE, with experience across the traumatic brain injury spectrum. She is Chief Medical Advisor to ConneCTers Australia and collaborates with Dementia Australia on a number of brain health initiatives.

REGISTER

<https://tinyurl.com/56empb64>

FEATURED SPEAKER

Prof. Juan Carlos Urizar

Geriatric Neuropsychiatrist, Brigham and Women's Hospital and Harvard Medical School
BOSTON, USA

Topic:

Neuropsychiatry of Normal Aging

Dr Juan Carlos Urizar is a geriatric neuropsychiatrist and behavioral neurologist based in Boston, USA. He serves as the Medical Director of Clinical Geriatric Psychiatry at the MGB Division of Geriatric Psychiatry and Aging, the BWH site director of Geriatric Psychiatry Fellowship and core academic faculty at the Center for Brain and Mind Medicine. He teaches across training levels and has received awards in medical education at Brigham and Women's Hospital Mass General Brigham and Harvard Medical School. His academic and clinical work focuses on the clinical evaluation of dementias and age-related neurodegenerative disorders.

CONTACT

Email: contact@globalneuropsychiatry.org

GNG Website: www.globalneuropsychiatry.org

INA Website: <https://inawebsite.org/>

